

Praying for our Nation

Father, according to Jeremiah 29:7, we are to seek You for the peace and prosperity of our nation. Today, we pray to You for the welfare of our nation, knowing its welfare will determine our welfare.

We take authority over our nation and declare it is our possession, the place You have given us to dwell in and to exercise our authority over. We declare our nation drinks water from the rain of heaven. It is a land for which our God cares for, the eyes of the Lord our God are always on our nation, from the beginning of the year to the very end of the year. (Dt. 11:10-12)

We thank You that Your thoughts for our nation are thoughts of peace and not evil, to give us a good future and continuous hope. (Jeremiah 29:11)

We have repented of the sins of this nation. Therefore, we believe You are cleansing it from all unrighteousness. We ask for a divine visitation of the Holy Spirit in our nation. May our nation, turn to God. We plead the blood of Jesus over our nation and declare Jesus is Lord over the United States of America. (Neh. 1:6-7, 1 John 1:9)

We praise and worship You today, thanking You for bringing us here to dwell. From this day forth, we will only speak Your words and Your will over our nation. We take authority over every negative word that has been spoken over our nation, we declare them null and void in Jesus name. We pull down every witchcraft prayer over our nation and declare those words powerless – they will produce no fruit here. We declare in unity, God rules and reigns in our nation from this day, forevermore.

We declare fear cannot reside in our nation. Fear, in the name of Jesus, you must go now. We further declare that division will not reign in our nation. We bind the spirit of division and cast it out. We declare unity reigns in our nation. Where there is unity, God commands the blessing of life evermore – therefore our nation is inundated with life ever more from this time forth. (Ps. 133:3)

We declare today, sickness and disease will not gain a foothold in our nation. We declare the God-fearing people in our nation are strong in God and in the power of His might. We declare there is no feeble among us, we are covered in the blood of Jesus Christ, and walking in the fulness of healing that was purchased for us at the cross. (Ps. 105:37)

We declare this day, our governmental officials will do ONLY what is good and right in the eyes of the Lord. We ask You God to remove every elected and non-elected official who does not have the best interest of the people in his/ her heart. Those who are filled with greed or evil, we ask You to remove them now and replace them with godly men and women who do your will. We pull down every stronghold over this nation and cast it to the ground, we say, “go back to where you came from, there is no place for you here.” We declare and decree our land, its leaders and officials will observe and obey the laws and commandments of the Lord. We commit this day to build fortified walls around our nation. Walls of the spoken word of God. Walls of praise and worship. Walls of prophetic declaration. Walls that cannot be demolished, and will forever prosper, in Jesus name. (2 Chron. 14:2-7, 1 Tim. 2:1-4)

We thank You that as we pray, within our nation, You give us rest on every side. We declare the United States of America is at peace and undisturbed at all times because it is under Your reign. (2 Chron. 14:7)

Your word says, unless the Lord guards the city, we stay awake in vain. We ask You to guard our nation from this day forth, knowing whatever we ask in prayer, we receive. Thank You God, for guarding our city, our states and our nation day and night. We thank You that as the mountains surround Jerusalem, You surround us and our nation, forever more. We ask You to send warring angels to surround the borders of each of our city, as well as our nation, keeping out all evil and those with evil intent. (Psalm 127:1, Ps. 125-2, Ps 91:11-12)

We declare and decree, our streets are filled joy for the righteousness of God has come. We declare and decree, our children, our boys and girls, will play daily in the streets, safe and unafraid for God is watching over our city and our nation. We declare and decree this day, the United States of America is at total peace, continual prosperity, obedience to God and His word, and dwelling together in unity – for this reason, God, we ask You to bless our land. May Your hand forever be upon America. In Jesus Mighty Name. We declare it done. Amen. (Zech. 8:4-5)
